

Dated species tree of 69 species

The node labels are the posterior probabilities with two digits remained after the decimal point, which was generated in *BEAST. We also highlighted (in colors other than black) the names of species displaying incongruence with STIMATE gene family trees on this species tree. The red and green dots on the branches are indicating the STIMATE-like gene duplications and losses, respectively.