

Additional Figure 3. The Schipperke pedigree. The Schipperke cohort consisted mainly of closely related individuals, which could be drawn on the same pedigree consisting of multiple epilepsy cases (indicated by black circles and squares) and healthy control dogs (indicated by white circles and squares). Circle: female; square: male; X: deceased