Fig. S1 Changes in $\Delta K$ suggest that the sampled New Caledonian crow population is structured into three genetically distinct subpopulations ($K = 3$) (cf. Fig. 2); for details, see main text