ESM Fig. 2 Principal component analysis (PCA) grouped for the experimental setups shows extraction of exactly two components. One component contains all setups with NaCl-infusion (blue color), while the other component contains all setups with GIP-infusion (red color). Circles represent infusions only, triangles the hyperinsulinemic-euglycemic, and squares the hyperinsulinemic-hyperglycemic setups, respectively (see also ESM Table 3).