ESM Fig. 5: Immunofluorescence images of a control human islet (left panel) and an histamine-exposed islet (right panel), showing insulin containing cells in red and TUNEL positive nuclei in green. The arrow in the right panel indicates an insulin containing cell with TUNEL positive nucleus, suggesting the presence of apoptosis.