Supplementary figure 4: Experiment 2. Scatter plots showing the distances performed by the animals after saline and muscimol injections during all outbound journeys, at 30cm 60cm and 90cm (color codes identify different animals and each dot represents the distance performed by a single animal in a single outbound journey); the corresponding kernel density estimates are shown on the right.