Electronic Supplementary Material

Correct Responses to Multiple Choice Questions

1. Body fat content may be elevated at normal BMI (D)
2. It is involved in regulation of prostaglandin synthesis (C)
3. Leptin receptors are preferentially located in the left atrium (C)
4. Increased minute volume on exercise mainly due to a rise in breathing rate (B)
5. It is present in 30% of formally diagnosed OSA patients (B)
6. Remifentanil dosed on the basis of lean body weight (E)