APPENDIX C  Time-dependant adjusted relative hazard of emergency department visit or hospital readmission after ambulatory surgery. Each plot shows the daily relative hazard for Monday surgery patients compared to Friday surgery patients. The y-axis is postoperative day, the x-axis is the adjusted hazard ratio. Values with 95% confidence intervals (CI) entirely below the black dotted line represent significant associations (i.e., Monday patients have a lower risk than Friday patients).