• A cost-effectiveness analysis of two insulins for diabetes in Spain was performed.
• Costs included insulin treatments and hypoglycemia management events.
• Utilities were associated to non-severe hypoglycemia rates and weight change.
• Insulin detemir showed a cost-effective alternative to neutral protamine Hagedorn.
• Insulin detemir was associated to lower hypoglycemic rate and less weight gain.