The graph shows the estimated heritability for 1 family with different numbers of observations. The heritability values are estimated for 200, 500, and 1000 observations, respectively. The error bars indicate the variability of the estimates.