Primary Health Care

- Strong leadership and government in human rights for health
- Prioritisation of cost-effective interventions
- Creating a systems cycle of feedback using data to inform health care
- Supporting skilled and equipped health workers at all levels of the health system
- Establishing an interactive and integrated culture of community engagement
- Providing an integrated continuum of care at the community level