Additional figure 4: Classification accuracy achieved using two different reference sets. Each colored bar depicts the accuracy achieved by TACOA with two different reference sets. The label "Taxonomic organism of test fragment absent from reference set" refers when the test fragment is classified using a reference set not containing the source organism from which the test fragment originates from.