A boxplot showing the calculated background plotted against the number of “true background” pixels that were available for the calculation out of the 289 considered. The array illustrated is the expression array 4343238066_A_1, and 29 beads are omitted since they fall near an aberrant pixel such as that illustrated in Figure 7.