Fig. 2: In this case, any spot that is smaller than a dissimilarity threshold is removed. The total area between the histogram of the spot sizes and the continuous probability distribution is calculated.

Figure 1: default