(a)

A graph showing the distance on the y-axis and match end position on the x-axis. The graph has a red circle highlighting a specific point.

(b)

A second graph with the same axes as the first. This graph includes a shaded region indicating some area of interest.