The diagrams illustrate the F-measure performance across different numbers of features eliminated. The data points for EDA-R, KS0, and SBE are shown for 400, 528, and 2096 features. The F-measure values range from 0.6 to 0.9, with EDA-R generally performing higher than KS0 and SBE across all feature sets.