Figure a shows the probability distribution function $p(k)$ for different networks, with labels for MSN, CSN, RSN1, and RSN2. The $k$ axis is logarithmic, and the $p(k)$ axis is semi-logarithmic.

Figure b is similar to Figure a, but with different data or network types.