Figure 7: Graphs showing the number of signals per cell over time post infection. Graph (a) and (b) show the change in signals per cell with and without infection. The bars indicate the mean, and error bars represent the standard deviation. A statistically significant increase is indicated by an asterisk (*) and p<0.5.