Figure 7. Estimates of Ne values from experimental white and brown layers are plotted against the commercial lines. $R^2$ of fitted lines were estimated as 0.92 and 0.57 for brown and white layers, respectively.