Fig.5: The specific fragments of expected sizes (1160 bp) were amplified and identified by 1.5% agarose gel electrophoresis. The corresponding fragments were observed in number 1, 5, 7, 8, and 9, suggesting that number 1, 5, and 9 were a heterozygote of the same fragment deletion and GAG insertion mutation in X chromosome.