Additional file 7. A large number of white blood cells were observed in the calvarial tissue. The majority of cells appear as lymphocytes (*).