The graph shows the relationship between the number of tRNA genes and the total number of codons, with a linear regression line indicating a positive correlation. The data points are labeled with numbers from 1 to 12, corresponding to different species or conditions. The species labeled "M. endobia" is highlighted in the graph.