Note: The graph is created from mean values of three different biological replications (8 DAF: only two replications). Relative expression levels of SPSII are shown based on delta Ct calculation.