Correlation between the number of nodules present on lateral roots and the number of lateral roots developed by Medicago truncatula plants inoculated with IAA and control strain. Nodule and lateral root numbers are significantly correlated (P<0.01) only in plants inoculated by IAA strain.