* National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey 1999-2000 data were top-coded such that all people age 85 and older were identified as 85. Thus the 1912-1916 cohort as analyzed using 1999-2000 data may include persons born in earlier years.

Figure 1: Latent tuberculosis infection prevalence by birth cohort and sample year