The graph shows the percentage of resistant and intermediate resistant cases over the years 2000 to 2007. The percentage of resistant cases generally increases over time, while the percentage of intermediate resistant cases remains relatively low.