Figure 2: Trends in the rate of elective caesarean sections delayed performed after 39 weeks, by the two main indications for elective caesarean section. Fitted line shows the predicted effect of the NICE guideline on the individual rates.

 Proportion for first quarter of 2009 is based on two rather than three months.