How did you make decisions about the care you would provide to your infant? How did you make decisions about getting care for your infant? When you don’t agree with the advice given by members of the household, what do you do? Does having a male infant make a difference in your decision making or in the process of decision making?

Describe your experience of caring for your newborn infant. Who guides you in taking care of your newborn infant?

Where does your practice or belief about caring for newborn come from and how does it make you feel?

In which situation(s) did you find it easy to seek help in caring for your newborn infant and in what situations was it challenging?

What are some traditional practices you are applying to care for your infant?

Tell me about how you know what your baby wanted. How do you feel about the way in which your baby responds?