
2) High-risk situations B-N and relevant protocols respectively explain the management of following conditions:

   Vaginal bleeding, Breech presentation, multiple gestation, > 42 weeks, <30 weeks, FHR non-assurance, thick meconium, gestational diabetes, hypertension, oligohydramnios, fetal congenital diseases, IUGR (Intrauterine growth retardation), and underlying diseases

3) Spontaneous contractions at least 2 per 15 minutes and at least two of the following:

   · Complete effacement of cervix
   · Cervical dilation 3 cm or greater
   · Spontaneous rupturing of membrane (SROM)

4) Including signs to look for changes to assess, reassurance that they can come back to the hospital when changes occur, admission, labour and birth stages and a guide to the hospital