Girls only vaccination reduces cervical cancer by 65% in males.

Girls and boys vaccination reduces cervical cancer by 40% in females.

The diagram shows the remaining annual number of cancer cases at steady state for different types of cancer in males and females.