↓: indicates a statistically significant higher amount of G2/M phase cells after VRL treatment compared to VFL, which coincided with a lower percentage of cells in G1 (*).