The graph illustrates the probability of survival over time since the start of therapy (in months) for patients classified into three stages of Okuda staging: Okuda I (n=13), Okuda II (n=28), and Okuda III (n=3). The survival probability decreases over time, with Okuda III showing the lowest survival rate. The graph indicates a statistically significant difference in survival probability between the stages (p<0.001).