Mothers of poisoned children scored higher than 5 on the GHQ-28 (psychiatric caseness).
Mothers of poisoned children supervised less closely during risk-taking activities.
Slightly higher percentage of accessible medicinal substance storage locations in the bathrooms of children who were poisoned.
Mothers of poisoned children used more positive control in the puzzle task.