43,820 individuals had at least 1 bipolar claim during the identification period

- 14,580 had only 1 bipolar disorder diagnosis
- 18,229 did not meet the continuous enrollment criteria
- 1768 were under age 18
- 275 were 65 years of age or older
- 373 did not have ≥2 bipolar disorder diagnoses independent of a unipolar depression or schizophrenia diagnosis
- 614 had Medicare coverage

7981 individuals with bipolar disorder met all inclusion criteria

- 1400 individuals had an incongruent unipolar depression diagnosis in 2003
- 6581 individuals had no incongruent unipolar depression diagnosis in 2003