The graph shows the change in CDSS sum score over time (in days) for four different medications: Risperidone (blue line), Olanzapine (green line), Quetiapine (orange line), and Ziprasidone (red line). The CDSS sum score decreases as the number of days increases, indicating a reduction in the sum score over time for all medications.