Crisis Plan

Increased quality of working alliance
Increased insight into the illness
Increased self-efficacy
Increased therapy adherence
Increased acceptance of the illness
Increased social support

Increased influence on the treatment and treatment satisfaction
Increased health and social functioning

Reduction of the number of outpatient mental health emergency visits and of the number and duration of (compulsory) admissions