Figure 1: Survival function according to socioeconomic status

a) men

b) women

Low: combination of low educational level and low per capita income Medium: combination of medium educational level and medium per capita income High: combination of high educational level and high per capita income