Additional file 2. Depressive symptoms by year and university stratified for class size, type of school and university setting*

*Please note these are descriptive graphs of observed levels of symptoms and that, apart from differences in participation rates at baseline and attrition over time, the number of respondents per school vary from 13-150 year one and 9-120 year five.