1. Is the study design appropriate to the research question?
2. Have attempts been made to minimise the biases associated with the selected study design?
3. Are the results precise?
4. Is the study valid?