Figure 2. Difference in the prevalence (%) of poor perceived general health between follow-up (after retirement) and baseline (prior retirement) in longitudinal studies on retirement and health.

*The study quality and the relative weight of the study in % are presented in brackets under the studies listed on the Y-axis.