Assembling relevant expertise

Understanding the local situation

Tailoring a community-owned response by negotiating knowledges and meanings

Reframing the approach

Getting the message out

Disseminating harm reduction messages
- Analysing the program logic
- Shifting leadership and control
- Assessing sustainability

Reflecting on the local evidence
- Developing new understandings
- Feeding back to community
- Collaboratively improving the approach

Consulting community organisations and members
- Reviewing the literature
- Establishing a baseline
- Developing local evidence

Steering committee

Community

Planning