The Homeless Shelter is for men and women...the Shelter is going through financial hardship right now. When they go through a hard time, they don’t know if it will be open from one day to the next or if they will be able to feed the clients a meal. This is a necessity for people from the community and the region...for those who are going through hard times. Even people from the south access this service.