I have had these two geese in my freezer for a long time. They were given to me by relatives, but I do not know how to clean them. I have not lived on the land for a long time and didn’t have all the experience…I would give these geese away to someone who knows how to clean them and who would use them for their family…or, maybe my relatives will pluck the geese for me…