2,382 People living with HIV

893 complained of current cough of any duration, at the time of interview or during their follow up.

800 had a sputum smear or culture for M. \textit{tb} either negative or not performed.

93 individuals were excluded:
- 62 who presented positive AFB sputum smear during the initial investigation;
- 21 had already started TB treatment;
- 8 had culture for \textit{M. tb} positive during the follow up;
- 2 died at the same day of the registration of cough.

95 deaths (failures)

698 censures (691 individuals survived until the end of the study and 7 died from homicide, accidents and suicide).