- Increased demand & consumption (urbanization, large family size, life style)
- Low production & supply
- Existed Long term Poverty

Low educational attainment & Employment Opportunity

Poor Economic Status
- Low household income
- No private house
- Asset Poor

- Increased cost of production, transportation & other living necessities

Increase in price of food & non food commodities.
- Food market instability

Increased food and non food expenditure

Low Purchasing Power of Poor Households

URBAN HOUSEHOLD FOOD INSECURITY

Market Dependent Food Supply