The bar chart compares the number of cases and controls across different BMI categories. The categories are BMI < 22.7, BMI 22.71-24.4, and BMI > 24.41. For each category, the chart shows the number of cases and controls, with error bars indicating the variability. The chart demonstrates that there are more cases with lower BMIs and more controls with higher BMIs.