Scheme 1. Cephalosporin C hydrolysis catalyzed by CCA. Formation of the DAAA product results in release of the molar equivalent of protons. In the case of immobilized CCA, proton formation may lead to a drop in intraparticle pH relative to the external pH in bulk.