686 original participants

- 591 participants traced who were still alive
- 27 participants traced but not alive
- 68 participants not traced

470 available for examination

- 468 provided basic anthropomorphic measures
- 121 participants not examined

110 participants not seen due to logistic reasons relating to poor weather, mobility of participants and single participants living in very remote locations

11 participants refused outright

442 participants completed dental self-report questionnaire and undertook a dental examination