The pie chart shows the distribution of HIV status among a population. According to the chart:

- 54% of the population is HIV negative.
- 32% of the population is HIV positive.
- 14% of the population's HIV status is unknown.