1. The probability of survival over time after diagnosis (in months) is shown for three different chemotherapy regimens:

- No chemotherapy
- Standard chemotherapy
- Aggressive-approach chemotherapy

The graph indicates that patients who receive no chemotherapy have a higher probability of survival compared to those receiving chemotherapy, especially during the initial months after diagnosis.